

A. M. MacCutcheon Dies; Was Reliance Official

Alexander Morton MacCutcheon, vice-president of Reliance Electric and Engineering Co. for 25 years, died yesterday at his home in Orlando, Fla.

Mr. MacCutcheon was associated with the company from 1914 until 1946 when he retired because of ill health. He was 72.

Joining Reliance Electric as engineer in charge of new design work, Mr. MacCutcheon was made chief engineer in 1917. He was elected a director in 1920 and became vice-president in charge of engineering in 1923.

A fellow of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers since 1926, he served as president in 1936 and 1937. In 1948 he was awarded the Lamme Medal for outstanding achievements in the development of electrical machinery.

Born in Stockport, N. Y., Mr. MacCutcheon attended Albany State Normal College and graduated from Columbia University in 1908.

He is survived by his wife, Caroline, two sons, Samuel M. of Midland, Mich., and Richard H. of Cleveland, and seven grandchildren.

Services will be tomorrow evening in Orlando, with burial in Germantown, N. Y.

MacCUTCHEON

3 p. m. in the Buesch Funeral Home, 3111 Broadview Rd.