A. E. KENNELLY
Professor Emeritus of Electrical Engineering

Cambridge, Massachusetts

August 20. th 1934

H. H. Henkle
Secretary A. J. E. E.

Dear Mr. Henkle:

I write you Mr. Kennelly to acknowledge your letter of Aug. 16, containing the notes of his re-appointment as representative of the A. J. E. E. on two Committees.

Mr. Kennelly has been ill and is still unable to attend to technical matters. But I am hoping that before long he will be able to write you, and I shall then call his attention to these matters.

Very truly yours,

(Mrs. A. E. E.) Julia S. Kennelly.

Dear Mrs. Kennelly:

I am very sorry indeed to learn in your letter of the 20th that Dr. Kennelly's illness has persisted so long and sincerely hope that he will very soon be completely restored to normal health.

Very truly yours,

National Secretary.
